

Welcome to Grade 9

We are excited about welcoming our new grade 9 students to J.L. Ilsley High School in September 2025!!

School Supplies:

- pencils/pens
- paper
- binder
- calculator
- ruler
- water bottle

Nice to have:

- Coloured Pencils/Markers
- Glue
- Corded Headphones
- Highlighters

92.4% of grade 9 students were worried about getting around on the first day but got used to it quickly!

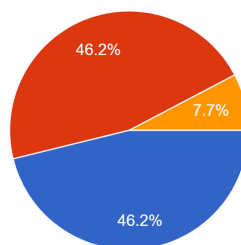

Day 1 – Sept 4th

On the first day, there will be MANY people around to tell you where to go and what to do.

Expect to be given lots of information, play some games and do some activities to help you get to know JL, the staff and other students!

Student's Council Members, Teachers and Staff will show you around and get you ready to start the year. Just arrive and we will guide you through the rest of the day!

Your schedule will be printed and ready to go for you as well.

DON'T WORRY!!!!

Frequently Asked Questions

Do the grade 9's have their own section of the building?

NO! Students in all grades have classes on all 3 floors

Do grade 9's get their own locker?

YES! You will be shown how to request a locker on the first day of school. After that, you will receive an email with your locker number and combination

Does JL have food service?

YES! We have a full cafeteria that is open for breakfast and lunch. We also have free breakfast and lunch programs on some days

Can students in grade 9 participate on school sports teams and clubs?

YES! Listen to announcements and look at our website calendar for all important try out dates.

Do you have a homeroom and travel with a class?

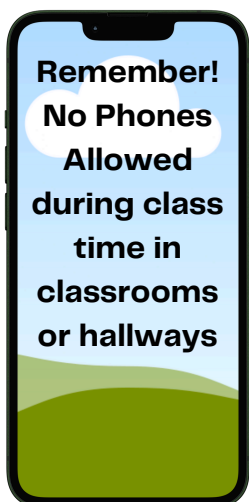

NO! You will have your own personal schedule with no homeroom teacher although you may notice some of the same students in some of your classes.

Can I get my PowerSchool reset?

YES! During the first few weeks of school, you can visit Ms. Amy in the main office to have it reset.

Where do I get my bus?

Your bus number can be found on the bus app. At the end of the day, go to the main doors and all busses will be lined up with their numbers on display in the window of the bus.
